God's Footprints

Based on "Footprints" poem by Ken Brown**;
tune by Steve Long (plus last verse), originally written in key of C

| CAPO 2  |                   |                 |           |
|---|-------------------|-----------------|-----------|
| G C C One night in deepest slee                               | G                 | D G             | ed.       |
| The Lord was by my side                                       | each step As quie | etly we talked. |           |
| G C Then on the sky my life a G C Two sets of footprints in t | G D               | G               |           |
| G C And then I noticed in som G C Just a single pair of footp | G                 | D G             |           |
| G C "Lord, you said you'd wal G C Why then weren't you wit    | G                 | D G             | d?"       |
| G "My dearest child," God v G C The single pair of footprir   | G                 | D G             | Dknew |
| G C And what does this story G C In all our good and bad ti   | G D               | C G             |           |

<sup>**</sup> there is some controversy who wrote this poem, but the first version I saw had Ken listed...