

ONE AND ONE

Written by Steve Long and dedicated to his parents. This was written one night in the Fall of 1997 when his Dad was going through complications from cancer.

G C Am
Who says one and one makes two, it's not as simple as that;
D G Em C D G
Especially when joined together, two people like Mom and Dad
C G C G
They joined together in '57, at a church in Abingdon town
C Bm C D
This union was to start forever, a synergy so fine.

C G C Em
When these two folks set their minds to it, the problem it is licked
Am D C D
Habitat and Wheeled Meals are examples, of two such causes they've picked
C Em C Em
Our family is blessed by our folks' examples, of fair play, hard work and love
C D G Em C D G
We rejoice in our fortune of being together, for all of this time in love

Em Bm Am Em
In '95 we all got a wake-up, in the form of a broken neck
Am Bm C D Em
Dad was down, but not nearly out; his faith, wife and family were with him still
Am Bm C D Em
After surgical repair we had a fighting chance and Dad came through with flying colors

G C Am
We've been blessed with some extra time, together as a family set
D G Em C D G
Seize the day is our new family motto and say "I Love You" today

G C Am
So one and one don't make two, they multiply a hundred-fold
D G Em C D G
The love the caring they come together to help heal a troubled world
C Em C Em
A hundred, a million who knows how many, have benefited from our folks' lives
C D G Em C D C G
We thank you God for their creation and the lessons they have shared.
